

Andrea Alamos Guerrero

Management Assistant
andrea@bentos.cl

With her more than 20 years of professional work experience, she has performed as a technical and management assistant for major Chilean and international companies in service fields in the environmental, oceanographic and tourism sectors where she has been in charge of work of administrative management, coordination of work teams and assistance on the management of financial and professional resources.

She has been responsible for the coordination and edition of reports for more 80 projects carried out in Chile, Peru, Bolivia, Argentina, Uruguay, Brazil, Panama and the Dominican Republic.