

María Renéé Munizaga

Coordinator Management
renee@bentos.cl

She has participated since 2000 in the direction of projects related with environmental management and quality. She has performed environmental impact studies and declarations, has participated in various public consultation processes and projects for the implementation of quality and integrated management systems at companies of the engineering and construction sector.

She teaches courses on the implementation of management systems and is lead auditor for integrated systems. She has served as an evaluator for the national quality award and has more than eight years of experience in the performance of internal audits for companies active in various lines of business.